Cancellation, curtailment or refund of course fees

Notification of course cancellation must be given in writing, by email.

Cancellation fees are as follows:

- Cancellation from 28 days to 14 days before the start of the course – 25% of total tuition fees.
- Cancellations 14 to 7 days before the start of the course – 50% of total tuition fees.
- Cancellation made less than 7 days prior to arrival – full tuition fees are payable – no refund.

The registration fee is non-refundable in the event of cancellation.

If a visa application is rejected and we receive written evidence at least 7 days prior to arrival, we will refund the fees received in full, less an administrative fee of £70. Where we receive this evidence, the refund will be paid to you within four weeks of your providing us with bank details and signed authorisation that the refund should be paid to that account.

If written evidence of a refusal is received less than 7 days prior to arrival then the refund will be paid less the administrative fee and the following non-refundable payments: £301

If you decide to leave English in York before the end of your course then tuition fees will not normally be refunded. Any refunds are at the discretion of the management.

Extension

It is possible to extend your programme, subject to an available place. Please contact the school office to discuss.

For students who live with a host family, it may not be possible to remain with the same family if you extend your course.

Accommodation

English in York reserves Homestay accommodation for students who request it. Please note that as an accredited school we conform to British Council guidelines with respect to Homestay accommodation.

If you decide to stay with a Homestay family arranged by English in York, we will always do our best to meet individual requirements, wherever possible. Priority will be given to medical requirements, such as dietary needs or allergies.

All Homestay accommodation fees are payable to English in York.

If you choose to leave your host family accommodation early, you must notify your host family immediately. Students must also notify the Accommodation Officer at the school in writing. A minimum of 1 week's notice is required or a cancellation fee of one week's fees will apply.

If you wish to take a 'holiday' from your Homestay, this may be possible, subject to payment of a retainer fee (normally 50% of normal fees). You must discuss this with your host family and notify the school.

Homestay accommodation is available from the weekend (Saturday or Sunday) before the start of the course. Students must leave their family accommodation when the course has finished.

Holiday

If you are on a long-term course and need to take a holiday, you must notify the school as soon as possible. A minimum of two weeks' written notice is required or full tuition fees will apply. Holiday periods should normally be for a maximum of 2 weeks.

Photography

On occasion, we may take photographs/videos of our students in classes or during social activities. These photographs/videos may be used for promotional materials, social media, advertising, publications and by our affiliated agents. If you do not give permission for this, please notify us in writing and we will ensure that you are not included.

Insurance

Students should arrange their own insurance to cover medical treatment and loss of personal possessions, and to provide cover against the loss of fees in case there is a need to cancel the course. We recommend an online insurer who provides specific insurance for language course students. Please see: <http://www.courseucan.com>

Please note that the majority of students at English in York are adults (18+). Students aged 16 & 17 are accepted onto programmes, subject to parental consent.
